WHAT IS WCMEDC?

The West Central Mountains Economic Development Council (WCMEDC) is a nonprofit organization established through partnerships with the Idaho Department of Commerce, cities, counties and chambers to help businesses and entrepreneurs thrive in our unique, regional community. WCMEDC is the primary voice moving regional issues forward that are vital to all businesses and residents of the region. We ensure that Cascade, Donnelly, McCall, New Meadows and Yellowpine are all working together, efficiently and effectively, as regional partners with shared vision and success. The work we do makes our community a better place to live and enhances the resources available to businesses, small and large.

CREATIVE SOLUTIONS. REGIONAL APPROACH. COMPREHENSIVE STRATEGY.

We are committed to this region and the success of the individuals that live and work here. Learn more about what we have accomplished and see what's in store as we continue to address important topics.

HOW CAN I HELP?

Be a part of the solutions based work by sponsoring our efforts. Your sponsorship ensures regional challenges and opportunities are addressed creatively and not just at the local level. Let's work together to tackle important issues like housing, infrastructure, workforce development, education and recreation accessibility.

SPONSOR REGIONAL SUCCESS!

The WCMEDC is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization that funds its efforts through an annual grant from the Idaho Department of Commerce and contributions from our regional community. Without these contributions, our work and success would not be possible. Help to make a lasting impression on the health and viability of our economy now and into the future by selecting one of our Sponsorship Opportunities.

SPONSORSHIP LEVELS

All sponsor levels include recognition on the Sponsor page of our website, mentions in print and digital media, event mentions and featured social media posts. Additional recognition rewards are listed below.
